RECTOR'S LETTER

My dear friends,
St George's Church Baghdad

The next time your daily paper plants a question in your mind about Muslims, spare a thought for the Church of England in Iraq.

Church of England in Iraq! I never knew there was such a thing!

Well, there is, and if you are C of E, then it is part of your church. It's been there since 1936, and Canon Andrew White is the Vicar.

It's a bit bigger than any of the parishes in the Owmbly Group. It has over 1200 members, and is now, in the middle of all the violence, the only growing church in Baghdad. How do I know all this?

Well, Canon White wrote a letter to the Bishop of Lincoln, and the Bishop of Lincoln has passed it on to me so that I can pass it on to you. Here it is.

*St George's Church
Haifa Street
Baghdad
Iraq*

February 2007

Dear Tom,

We write to you in the hope that you will be able to encourage your people and parishes to support our parish. Surely it is the most dangerous parish in the world. In the past month we have had over 110 people killed in our road of Haifa Street. 30 bodies were recently hanged on the lamp-posts outside of our Church. But people still flock to worship their God. We have learnt that when everything is gone, Jesus is all we have left.

We as a church have to look after all of our people. Increasingly our staff and male members of the Church have been killed, so we have to look after their families, and we do so with joy. With inflation at 77% and the fall of the $US against the Iraqi Dinar, we are now having to find $18,180 per month. This works out at about £300 per day, and we do have many churches that support us for a day, covering 35% of the calendar. We are therefore looking for more. Last year the Dioceses of Guildford and Portsmouth supported us as part of their lent appeal; this has dramatically helped us to continue amidst great opposition.

We have wonderful people and I love them all. They are so grateful to the Churches in England for their help in our chaos and tragedy. We will not stop serving the Prince of Peace and we invite you to join with us in our service of God in this difficult place. I attach some of our updates and reports which will give you a greater idea of our parish.

Blessings and Peace from Baghdad,

Andrew White

I have Canon White's updates and can give you more information. What shall we do about it?

God bless us all this Easter.

GLENTHAM PARISH COUNCIL

The following was discussed at Glenthams Parish Council's Meeting held on Thursday 9th November 2006 in The Village Hall
Members of the public raised concerns about the following issues:

- Four year plan – The Chairman, Cllr G Wiseman said that the Parish Plan had, in effect taken over the proposed four year plan. The Parish Plan would formulate an Action Plan which would define the aspirations of the Parish.
- Village sign – Lincolnshire County Council were not willing to pay for new signs. Clerk had been exploring funding opportunities when the Parish Plan concept arose. It seemed more applicable to leave this matter to the Steering Group who could ascertain if the village wanted new signs as only one design had been submitted after the appeal.
- Former Councillor – A thank you letter had been sent to Cllr Wilson. The Council and the Parish are very grateful for all Mr Wilson's hard work and his wisdom and expertise will be missed.

CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

Cllr G Wiseman reported that Councillor R Summers had tendered her resignation. A letter of thanks for her past hard work has been sent to Mrs Summers. Notices regarding the vacancy have been put on the Village Hall noticeboard. The Council is now two members short. Parishioners are reminded that the Parish Council do an enormous amount of work, which is often not recognised, especially with regard to Highways. Anyone who feels they could commit to hard work with no payment, would be very welcome to apply for these vacancies! On a serious note, if you are interested in your community and would like more involvement and be able to really make a difference by having a voice in how the Parish is run, please contact the Clerk on 01427 628417.

PLANNING – MONCKS ARMS SITE – GRANTED UNDER DELEGATED DECISION

STEERING GROUP – The grant application has been submitted. The Group have a whole summers worth of activities lined up – watch this space! There is a suggestion box in the Post Office for anyone with bright ideas.

CLOCK- Grant funding is still being sought.

LITTER BINS – Several litter bins have been broken and the Council are seeking to have these replaced.

REPORT FROM VILLAGE HALL - Cllr A Lakeman reported that the recent questionnaire had been well received and several new ideas put forward.

PLAYGROUND FENCING

The damaged fencing has been repaired and sprayed.

NOTICEBOARDS

The Clerk is unable to open one of the noticeboards and the other is extremely stiff. It was agreed that Mr Harris should be asked to repair these.

‘The story of the loaf from the field to the table’ by Mr Stan Dales was a very entertaining talk given by a true Lincolnshire ‘gent’. His enthusiasm for country life and his reminiscing of life ‘as it were’ was very pleasant. His love of the older tractors and farming machinery was very evident.

Mr Geoff Trinder will be speaking on April 10th at 7.30.p.m. on ‘His Wildlife Garden’.

Thin out bamboo plants

NOW’S the time to thin out bamboo canes, before new growth starts.

Pull out any dead leaves, then snip out thin, weak shoots at ground level.

You can take out up to a third of the canes, which will leave you with an open plant that looks much better.

If your bamboos are growing in the garden, watch out for new plants appearing from underground. They can appear several feet from the parent plant and could invade a large area of your garden if you don’t remove them.

Now’s the time to chop out these spreading clumps — they’re perfectly good plants and ideal for potting or planting in another part of the garden.

HACKTHORN & COLD HANWORTH PARISH COUNCIL

The Parish Council discussed the following items at their last meeting:

Policing matters – It had been reported that two 4 x 4's had been stolen from a neighbouring village. These were taken overnight. If you see anything suspicious please report it to the Police.

Co-option of Councillor for Hackthorn. The vacancy has now been filled by the co-option of Mrs R Orlowska.

Best Kept Village/Calor Village of the Year competitions – This was discussed at length and came back to the problem of verges again. The Council is to find out what the Highways department view of the verges is. It was agreed to put an entry into the Calor Village of the Year competition. This competition focuses on the community of the Parish.

Dog Fouling. It was brought to the Councils attention that there still seems to be a problem in Hackthorn. It was agreed that as this is still occurring, West Lindsey will be contacted due to the continued complaints.

“PERENNIALS FOR EVERY SEASON”

New members are always welcome

HACKTHORN C.O.F.E PRIMARY SCHOOL

Forget London, Paris and Milan, Hackthorn is now the fashion design capital of the world – official. Key Stage 2 were visited by the artist Wendy Reeve, who spent a day in school demonstrating the art of screen printing, and then brought out the inner designer in our pupils, who set about printing their own t-shirts. The array of ideas which went on show at the ‘good work assembly’ later that week were a sight to behold, ranging from designs to grace the backs of the 2020 England squad, through to one particular example which Mr Picasso himself might have been quite pleased with.

Continuing the artistic theme, this time on the performance side, Key Stage 2 took to the stage with a superb musical production of ‘The Iron Man’ based on the book by Ted Hughes. This was a technical triumph overcoming many daunting practical difficulties as the show featured an earth quake, a dragon that flew to the Sun and an Iron Man as big as a house!

Everyone is looking forward to meeting potential new classmates on April 2nd during our preschool art afternoon, or if you are unable to join us then, why not come along to our Easter Service at Hackthorn Church on April 5th at 2pm? Contact the school on 01673 860295 for further details, or to request a School Brochure.

First week back after Easter sees the return of the weekly swimming lessons. We take the Whole School, because – as with all things – we believe the earlier they learn, the better.
