We Will Remember Them

On 11-11-11 at 11 o'clock by the War Memorial in Normanby-by-Spital, those present will observe a two minute silence.

The Reverend Sally Turnbull will take the service which will start about 10:50 a.m.

There will be a bugler playing the Last Post just prior to the two minutes' silence and then he will play Reveille at the end of the silence.

Owmbly-by-Spital Parish Council will be laying the wreath this year and it is hoped a good many villagers will attend as they have so often in the past. The children of N-b-S school will also be attending.

The Welton branch of the Royal British Legion have organised an Act of Remembrance which will be held at the Welton War Memorial on Friday the 11th of November at 11:00 a.m.

The two minute silence will be kept and wreaths will be laid on behalf of local organisations.

Two Remembrance Day Services will be held on Sunday 13th of November. At 10:45 a.m. in Hackthorn's St Michael & All Angels' Church and a United Service at 6:00 p.m. in Glenthams Methodist Chapel.

Volunteers Needed

Well, it's nearly the end of another year, and another 8000 or so magazines have been printed and then posted through the letterboxes of local parishioners, with numerous others being sent further afield to those still wishing to be kept "in the loop".

It's also time to ask for people who may wish to join the Signpost Team.

Do you fancy getting involved? You could be a features writer, secretary, magazine distributor, accounts manager, photographer for the new website, treasurer, advertising co-ordinator... there's a whole list of things to do! So if you would like to become part of our friendly team and take an active role in making Signpost more than it currently is, drop me an email at steve@owmblygroup.co.uk or call me - my phone numbers are inside the back cover.

Just remember - you're volunteering! Signpost Magazine is a charity and makes no money at all. Nil. Nowt. Nothing. Nada. Zip. The donations we receive and the small amount we charge for advertising help to offset the associated costs involved with running a magazine and website, but it really is, for the most part, a labour of love.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir,

It was not my intention to upset anyone with my last entry in the Signpost. I think our villages are really beautiful - that is why we chose to live here. My point was that things could be improved. In my last village, we won the Best Kept Village Competition one year and also managed to win the next year as a past winner. So, when I said things about out of date notices - thank you all for taking them down when the event is over and faded and out of date notices on a Parish Council notice board - though there are still some faded pictures on view, and the "blot on the landscape" has been cleared up, it was meant to be a positive comment.

What a shame some people are "shooting the messenger", I actually like the fact that us villagers can put our point of view over, which just goes to prove that one cannot please all the people all of the time.

The school safety zone outside Normanby school looks a lot better now it has been finished off. Is Normanby having a memorial service on November 11th? It is a very moving service and to have the school children attend as well as quite a lot of villagers, makes it even more poignant. Now the darker evenings are drawing in more dog mess is appearing. Being a dog owner myself, I do know that it is not easy to get into the habit of clearing up after your dog, but once you do, hopefully it will stop people moaning about dog mess.

Susie Dulake

Dear Steve

I meant to write to you regarding the comment made by "Name Not Given", however ill health prevented this.

If all content from outside the Signpost area i.e. adverts, doctors information and events were removed, this would remove approximately 13 pages at a monthly loss to Signpost of about £300.00, a large part of the cost of the entire print run.

Can he categorically state that no one is interested in the Broadbent Theatre or even buying logs from just outside our area?

Signpost gets its funding from Parish and Church Councils, Clubs & Organisations, Pots and Personal donations but the majority of funding comes from advertising, both commercial and private. Without this funding Signpost would not be a viable proposition and that would be a great shame.

As a former editor I empathise with you over the crass comments made by people who know nothing about the financial situation and are either unwilling to help or not qualified. I believe that constructive comments are always welcome by editors of any publication but criticism purely for the sake of it only shows pure ignorance.

If this vocal minority of miseries who hide behind anonymity feel so strongly why don't they start their own Puritan magazine?

What is wrong with the odd joke or comment on the news? There are things I don't particularly like such as the "Thought for the Month" when it is sanctimoniously, sickly American, but I would never say take it out, because other people like it.

Anyway you are doing a great job, keep it up.

Regards

Colin Rainer

FROM YOUR PARISH PRIEST

My dear friends,

ALL FAITHS AND NONE

I missed the Living Islam Festival on the Lincolnshire Showground at the end of July. I didn't know about it until I was going round the A15/A1500 roundabout to church on the Sunday morning, and by then it was too late.

But I know a man who did make it. A friend from Lincoln, Roman Catholic as it happens, was manning a stall there. And this is some of what he writes...

What I did not expect was the immediate sense of nostalgia!

This was a town fete anyone in the traditional 1950's would have recognised; full of children, mums and dads, aunties and uncles. The people who came to our stall were bubbling with joy, clearly happy to be there and surrounded by - a Muslim culture. A culture that made them feel safe, secure and wanted.

Many Muslim brothers and sisters from the county were there. Many had visited and admired our Cathedral and several commented that it felt familiar because like a mosque, at the moment, it is clear of all chairs. I encountered people from every walk of life, business owners, doctors, manual workers, students, you name it, and they were there.

I suspect that out in the country we don't realise just how many people from many different backgrounds and faiths now live in our county. We don't notice many of them in our villages.

I'm very taken by what my friend had to say about Living Islam. Many of us may look back on imagined "good old days" when life was simpler and more stable. He points us towards a community where such values are still treasured.

Unlike many of our schoolchildren today, I've never visited a mosque. That makes me the loser. But I've certainly visited our cathedral (well, I do work there, sometimes), and to have the two compared together is interesting. I wonder which would come across more powerfully as a house of prayer?

For people of other religions do do by and large what Christians do. They believe in God; they trust in God. They worship and they pray. They try to live God-centred lives. They may come at God from a different angle to us, but that's hardly surprising. There's more to God than any of us can get a full view of.

I do believe that all the major religions have things in common. These we should explore and celebrate. We don't see and perhaps we don't know much about our brothers' and sisters' faiths, but if we get a chance, perhaps we should try to find out. It's always good to have our horizons broadened. If the opportunity arises for you, take a good look at someone else's religion.

I really do hope that next time I'll make it to "Living Islam". I'm sure that knowing more about our friends of other faiths would make me at least a better-informed, if not a better anything else, Christian. That can't be bad.

God bless us all,

Peter Godden

Funeral at Welton on 4th October - Canon Frank Hone, aged 99

CANON FRANK HONE

Frank was well-known in all the villages around here. Retiring to Welton after a long and distinguished ministry, during which he served as an Army Chaplain during World War II and also seems to have trained half the curates in the Church of England of a certain generation, he took services wherever there was a shortage of a priest, and became known, valued and loved for his caring pastoral ministry. He lost his dear wife of 66 years, Ruth, a year ago, and had moved into the Cathedral Nursing Home in Lincoln. He was very frail, but undiminished in spirit. He missed his 100th birthday by two weeks. May he rest in peace and rise in glory.

Registered Charity No. 1115048

The Bishop of Lincoln, the Rt Revd Christopher Lowson, writes:

Dear Friends,

There have been a number of 'firsts' for me in the last few days. I've been to Buckingham Palace and met the Queen; I've had my first TV interview with Peter Levy on Look North; and I have received a wonderful welcome from the people of Lincolnshire, North Lincolnshire and North East Lincolnshire. I am thankful for all these things.

My wife Susan is busy preparing for our move to our new home in Lincoln and we are looking forward to joining you around the Diocese at your celebrations in your church, your school or community, as this first year of office progresses.

On 12th November the formal part of my arrival will take place in the magnificent Cathedral, when I take the Bishop's seat among the Chapter and congregation. I hope many of you will be able to come and join in the worship.

The following day is Remembrance Sunday and for many of us, this is a time of quiet reflection, but for others, it's a time of renewed sorrow. I am only too aware of the price Lincolnshire families have paid, not only in the great wars, but also in the recent conflicts. Sunday 13th November will be another first for me, as I shall be able to join you in prayer on this special day.

Many of you are also coping with difficult economic circumstances, whether you live in our industrial towns or in rural areas. It is my aim to listen and learn in the coming months, so that my life and work as Bishop of Lincoln reaches out to you, wherever you are in this splendid region.

Looking forward to it!

+Christopher

THANK YOU

A few months ago we were sent details for a house for sale in Glentham. We loved the house but knew nothing about the village.

I started doing some research on the Internet and came across the site for the Signpost Magazine. The very first issue I read was March 2011 and I was VERY impressed. In particular the Thought Of The Month brought tears to my eyes and I copied it down onto a piece of paper and carry it around with me everywhere.

We eventually bought the house in July and I was so thrilled when my first ever copy of Signpost was delivered. I always read it from cover to cover then keep it as it contains such useful information.

Everyone we have met in Glentham and the surrounding villages have been ever so friendly and welcoming and we would like to say a BIG THANK YOU to you all.

PRAYER FOR THE MONTH

Teach us, good Lord, to serve you as you deserve; to give and not to count the cost; to fight and not to heed the wounds; to toil and not to seek for rest; to labour and not to ask for any reward, save that of knowing that we do your will.

St Ignatius Loyola (1491-1556)

Do not desert your friend in danger or distress. Too many are in the world whose attachment to those they call friends is confined to the day of their prosperity. As long as that continues, they are, or appear to be, affectionate and cordial.

But as their friend is under a cloud, they begin to withdraw and separate their interests from his. In friendship of this sort, the heart assuredly has never had much concern. For the greatest test of the friendship is, constancy in the hour of danger - adherence in the season of distress. When your friend is calumniated, then is the time openly and boldly to espouse his cause. When his situation is changed, or misfortunes are fast gathering around him, then is the time of offering prompt and zealous aid. When sickness or infirmity occasions him to be neglected by others, that is the opportunity which every real friend will seize of redoubling all the affectionate attention which love suggests. These are the important duties, the sacred claims of friendship, which religion and virtue enforce on every worthy mind.

To show yourselves warm in this manner in the cause of your friend, commands esteem, even in those who have personal interests in opposing him. This honourable zeal of friendship has, in every age, attracted the veneration of mankind. It has consecrated to the latest posterity the names of those who have given up their fortunes and exposed their lives on behalf of the friends whom they loved; while ignominy and disgrace have ever been the portion of those who deserted their friends in the hour of distress.

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH

An elderly carpenter was ready to retire. He told his employer of his plans to leave the house building business and live a more leisurely life with his wife enjoying his extended family.

He would miss the wages, but he needed to retire. They could get by. The contractor was sorry to see his good worker go and asked if he could build just one more house as a personal favour. The carpenter said yes, but in time it was easy to see that his heart was not in his work. He resorted to shoddy workmanship and used inferior materials. It was an unfortunate way to end his career.

When the carpenter finished his work and the builder came to inspect the house, the contractor handed the front-door key to the carpenter. "This is your house," he said, "my gift to you."

What a shock! What a shame! If he had only known he was building his own house, he would have done it all so differently. Now he had to live in the home he had built none too well.

So it is with us. We build our lives in a distracted way, reacting rather than acting, willing to put up less than the best. At important points we do not give the job our best effort. Then with a shock we look at the situation we have created and find that we are now living in the house we have built. If we had realised that we would have done it differently.

Think of yourself as the carpenter. Think about your house. Each day you hammer a nail, place a board, or erect a wall. Build wisely. It is the only life you will ever build. Even if you live it for only one day more, that day deserves to be lived graciously and with dignity.

Your life tomorrow will be the result of your attitudes and the choices you make today.

THE LAW ON CLEARING SNOW AND ICE FROM PUBLIC SPACES

There is no law stopping you from clearing snow and ice on the pavement outside your property, pathways to your property or public spaces. If an accident did happen, it is highly unlikely that you would be sued as long as you:

1. Are careful
2. Use common sense to make sure that you do not make the pavement or pathway clearly more dangerous than before

People using areas affected by snow and ice also have responsibility to be careful themselves.

TIPS AND ADVICE ON CLEARING SNOW AND ICE

- Start early- it is much easier to clear fresh, loose snow compared to compacted ice that has been compressed by people walking on it
- Do not use hot water - this will melt the snow, but may replace it with black ice, increasing the risk of injury
- Be a good neighbour - some people may be unable to clear snow and ice on paths from their property
- If shovelling snow, think where you are going to put it so that so it does not block other people's paths or drainage channels
- Make a pathway down the middle of the area to be cleared first, so you have a clear surface to walk on
- Spreading some salt on the area you have cleared will help stop ice forming - table salt or dishwasher salt will work, but avoid spreading on plants or grass as they may be damaged by it
- Pay particular care and attention to steps and steep gradients
- Use the sun to your advantage - removing the top layer of snow will allow the sun to melt any ice beneath; however you will need to cover any ice with salt to stop it refreezing overnight
- If there is no salt available, sand or ash are good alternatives.

Christmas approaches and we all begin to think about what we can give to whom. May I suggest a tin of beans, packet of soup, box of cereal or anything else that comes to mind for a person less fortunate than yourself.

The Community Larder has even more demands upon it than it has had for years. People of your age, whether you are young, old or a child are needing help to make sure that they are sufficiently nourished. This problem is due to no fault of their own, merely circumstances.

If you feel that you could donate something, there will be a collection point at "Herongate", Main Street, Hackthorn and from there it will be delivered to Lincoln Larder for distribution.

I do hope that you can give a little to help and to embrace the message of goodwill that Christmas brings to us all.

HACKTHORN C. OF E. PRIMARY SCHOOL

Only in this country could you expect to have two Autumn 'welly walks' which were so different! Each year, roughly once per season, the school goes out in two separate groups on a walk through the countryside around the village, recording what they see along the way so that they can make comparisons with previous walks, and note how the different seasons affect plants and wildlife.

Key Stage 2 did their walk first, and enjoyed one of the hottest days of the year, so much so, that there was no need for wellies at all as it hadn't rained for weeks. Key Stage 1 did their walk but a few days later, and had to revise their route as the rain became more and more torrential. The weather became so bad that eventually their route was shortened to an exploration of a couple of teachers' gardens, before they all returned back to school to dry out again.

On the 12th of October, we took part in the Roast Dinner Day which had been organised by William Farr, who supply our school meals, to promote local food. 71% of the school elected to have the hot meal that day, which gave us quite an interesting planning exercise, as it was more than double the amount who usually sit down to eat together, but we managed it and everyone agreed that the food was fantastic.

The Friends of Hackthorn School are organising a Fashion Show by Lincs Fashions (Top Brands at Half Price or less - no seconds). It will be on the 3rd Nov so there might just be time to grab a couple of tickets if you get this in time (£3.50 each or two for £5).

There will also be our Christmas Fair at School on Friday 25th Nov from 3:30 pm, all are welcome to come along.

A little boy, who wanted £100.00 very badly, prayed for two weeks but nothing happened. Then he decided to write God a letter requesting £100.00.

When the letter arrived at the sorting office, addressed to GOD, UK, they decided to send it to the Prime Minister. The Prime Minister was so impressed, touched, and amused that he instructed his secretary to send the boy £5.00. The Prime Minister thought that this would appear to be a lot of money to the little boy.

The little boy was delighted with the £5.00 and immediately sat down to write a thank you note to God that read:

"Dear God, Thank you very much for sending me the money. However, I noticed that for some reason you had to send it through Downing St and, as usual, those devil's deducted £95.00."

THANK YOU

Cream Tea

Thanks to everyone who made it to the Village Hall Cream Tea on Sunday 4 September, despite all the other events that were taking place during that weekend. We raised the sum of £155 for Village Hall funds.

Curry Night

Held on 14th October. This event was a sell-out with a record attendance - we even had two visitors from Australia enjoying the food and the music with us. We were also able to make use of the sparkling new Lottery-funded kitchen for the first time. Many thanks to everyone who attended, to those who worked so hard to set the village hall to rights before the event (especially Simon Marris), to everyone who helped on the night and to our splendid cooks who supplied a great selection of curry dishes. Total proceeds were unknown at time of printing, but will be published next month.

Response to Circular

The village hall committee would also like to thank everyone in the community who responded so positively to our appeal for help, especially those energetic and enthusiastic gentlemen who cleared the premises of ivy and weeds and sowed and watered grass seeds instead! The grass is now growing nicely and we are looking forward to seeing a lovely lawn next Spring!

NORMANBY EDUCATIONAL CHARITY

If you are resident in Normanby by Spital and have children up to the age of 25 in full time education please read on:

Normanby Educational Charity is a fund available to all students resident in Normanby by Spital (not Owmbly). It is not means tested but students must be in full time education and resident in Normanby, irrespective of where they are educated. It is available to students up to the age of 25.

Please send your application to me at the address below. Please include, the names and addresses of the applicants, the ages, and the year at school they are in and, if it was since October 2010, when they started school

Please note that all students over the age of 16 must make the written application themselves giving their date of birth and brief details of where they are studying and the subjects being taken.

All applications must be received by 9th November 2011. Unfortunately applications received after this date will not be accepted, as the allocations have to be prepared in time for the Meeting of the Trustees.

Please may I remind you that all students, even though they have received a payment in previous years, must apply again. If in doubt please contact me, Mrs. Maureen Gariff, 1 Chapel Lodge Drive, Normanby by Spital, LN8 2HR Tel: 01673 878754 preferably after 7:00 p.m.

NORMANBY-BY-SPITAL PARISH COUNCIL

At the meeting held on 5th October 2011, all Councillors were present: Cllrs Roy Bellamy, Adam Carter, Ken Green, Daniel Clinch, Mrs Adele Crowther, Barbara Moulson and Helen McLaughlin. The Clerk - Mrs Nadine Fox was in attendance. County Councillor Lewis Strange and District Councillor Jeff Summers could not attend due to having to attend a District Planning Meeting. There were no members of the public.

The state of the road surface along Private Lane is actually causing damage to cars and even constant emails and telephone calls to Highways have not had any effect. It was agreed to ask Steve Wiles, from Highways, together with CC Lewis Strange and Roy Bellamy to drive along Private Lane to show how bad the surface is.

The Club for Young People has made a request to the school for a larger shed to be erected in the grounds so they can store their equipment. The Parish Council had asked the Head of the School and the Chair to the Governors to attend this meeting, but neither could attend.

The Clerk has received some adhesive signs requesting people clear up after their dog fouls and some requesting people to pick up their litter - these will be appearing soon in areas where there is a problem with dog fouling and dropped litter.

The cemetery is being kept tidy, but if you know differently, please contact either Shirley Sanderson (O-b-S Clerk) on 843324 or Nadine Fox (N-b-S Clerk) on 878148.

As the Website is taking time to set up, it was decided to set up a Facebook, so those who know how to use it, can see what the Council is up to.

The Queen's Diamond Jubilee - weekend Saturday June 2nd through to and including Tuesday June 5th 2012 will hopefully be celebrated in some way. If you have any ideas or want to help, please place (sensible) comments in "suggestion box" in the Post Office.

LIVES still need more volunteers. This is a very worthwhile group to belong to and one can give as little or as much time as one feels they can, so please contact the Regional Development Officer - Roger Ferguson on 07766 992438 or the Spridlington Group Coordinator - Anna Williams on 07714 401100 if you think you could be a First Responder.

SNOW

Apparently we are in for another hard winter. The Parish Council is working with Head of Highways to locate businesses and individuals with suitable snow clearance equipment who are prepared to help when snow falls. Throwing salt from salt bins onto icy roads or pavements - volunteers are needed to do this, and to report when the salt bins are getting low on salt. If anyone can assist with of the above, please contact the Clerk so a list of helpers can be drawn up, Highways notified and then we may not be snowed in for a long as we were at the beginning of this year.

WASTE COLLECTION

Hopefully you have had the new calendar for when and what waste is being collected. No garden waste collection from November this year, but starting again in March. The new calendar is starting with blue bins collected on TUESDAY 15th November (for Normanby), followed by black bins on 22nd November and then every other week for black and blue bins as before, but on a Tuesday.

The next meeting will be on Wednesday 30th November 2011

NORMANBY BY SPITAL PRIMARY SCHOOL NEWS

The smell of roast pork, roast potatoes, and a selection of seasonal vegetables, all locally produced in Lincolnshire, wafted across Normanby on October 12th. Thank you to all who attended our Roast Dinner Day. We served over fifty meals to members of the local community, bringing the total including our pupils and staff to well over 100. This ensured the event was a great success. It was good to see everyone sitting together and enjoying a delicious meal. Well done to Mrs Looker for cooking for so many!

We are holding a regular coffee morning on the first Wednesday of each month starting Wednesday 2nd November. Come along for a chat and a biscuit. Share ideas on how you could support the school with fund raising. Toys are provided for younger children. We look forward to seeing as many of you as possible.

We are now able to make known our OFSTED results. The school is very happy to have been graded as GOOD with OUTSTANDING behaviour. Congratulations to the children, you must be very proud of them, we certainly are!

September was a month of inspections for us as we also underwent an Investors in People Review. The outcome was successful and we retain our Investors in People Award.

Free to a good home

We have recently replaced tables (rectangular and hexagonal shaped) in school. If any one would like table(s), suitable for community groups or office/ bedroom, please contact the school.

GLENTHAM PARISH COUNCIL

NOTES ON MEETINGS HELD ON THURSDAY 6th OCTOBER 2011

Council matters

Have your lights gone out recently? The local Police beat team reported to the Parish Council two thefts of cabling in the parish last month, which caused great inconvenience when the electricity supply was interrupted. If you hear or see anything suspicious, especially at night time, call the Police; numbers are at the back of this magazine.

Cherry Tree Farm is back in the news; the site has been sold, and the developer recently gave the public an opportunity to ask questions and make comments about his plans, which include a farm shop, a fishing lake with holiday cabins and caravans, a garden centre and a play barn with cafe. If the application goes to plan, work could start in February next year, and a noticeable improvement to the frontage of the site is expected.

The Council is aiming to organise a coach trip to the Lincoln Christmas Market this year; details will be displayed in the Village Shop, so hurry before all of the seats are allocated.

After several months of erratic behaviour, the Church clock seems to be going again, hopefully without further problems. Tenders are currently being sought for follow-up work on other parts of the mechanism, to ensure continued smooth running.

Date of next meeting

The next meetings are scheduled for Thursdays 3rd November and 1st December at 7:30 p.m. There is always an open forum for the public to raise any Parish issues and everyone is welcome.

All Welcome

THANK YOU

THE GLENTHAM SINGERS

We invited you and you came!

At the Methodist Church Centenary concert in September so many of you came that the balcony was opened to accommodate the overflow from downstairs.

You came from far and near to support us, Canterbury being the farthest away that we heard of, but also from Glenthams, Welton, Market Rasen, Upton, Kexby and other villages in the surrounding area.

The programme was an extremely varied one with excerpts from Oklahoma, The Lion King, Sister Act, Sound of Music and Mama Mia to name but a few of the shows featured.

Comments from the audience were 'magnificent', 'superb', 'encore!' and we have at least one convert from 'The X Factor' to The Glenthams Singers concerts. What an accolade!

Thank you for your support at this milestone event. The concert was repeated at Crowle a few days later and was again received with great enthusiasm and we have an invitation to return next year.

We will be giving as Christmas concert on Monday December 12th 2011 in Glenthams Village Hall when proceeds will be for Glenthams Village Hall funds.

Thank you again for your continued support.

See you at Christmas!

Hello readers

The Neighbourhood Policing Team have had several calls in recent weeks concerning scam phone calls and e-mails made by companies and individuals purporting to offer services or rewards, the most recent offering a service to rid your computer of viruses. Our investigations suggest these calls are coming from overseas and are not genuine.

Though it may seem like common sense, please exercise caution when dealing with those you are not familiar with. Genuine companies do not request bank account or other personal information by e-mail. Do not give any details to those you cannot be sure about and remember the old saying, if it sounds too good to be true, it probably is!

With the nights now beginning to draw in please remember to ensure your property is secure. Whilst burglaries are thankfully uncommon in our villages it's nevertheless a good idea to lock downstairs doors and windows, even when your home is occupied. Please also ensure that you remove valuables from your vehicle when parking it overnight. Now may also be the time to consider installing security lighting if your home does not have any. Additional lighting not only discourages a potential thief but also alerts you to anyone that may be around your property during the hours of darkness.

That's all for this month. Take care and stay safe.

WELTON HEALTH CENTRE NEWS

At the time of writing we are putting the finishing touches to our new website which will be available shortly - please log in to www.weltonsurgery.co.uk and take a look and as reported last month, we are now on Facebook too.

Thank you to everyone who has provided email / postal addresses and suggestions to us to enable us to have a sample patient group for survey purposes. Any patient who wishes to add their details to this list is still very welcome and we would particularly like to hear the views of our younger patients - forms on the website or in the surgery. We will be conducting the first survey shortly and look forward to your responses, the results of which will be discussed in full with our Patient Participation Group in due course.

Dr Nellist will be starting her maternity leave at the end of this month and we are pleased to announce that we will be working with Dr Alison Rawden and Dr Susan Protheroe during her absence. We will also be welcoming two new Registrars in early December, Dr Helen Flint and Dr Maiella Apudo for the first of their placements in a GP Practice and both will be with us until early April 2012. Earlier this month Dr Stephen Barton, our Senior Partner, celebrated thirty years as a Partner in the Practice and we all spent some time reminiscing over the changes that have occurred since that time! It is also a good opportunity to put to rest once and for all the unfortunate rumour that spread around the villages recently that Dr Inder has suffered an untimely death in Canada - we have it on good authority that he is alive, very well and thoroughly enjoying his retirement.

We still have 'flu vaccines for those in the "at risk" groups - please ask at reception if you think you may be eligible.

CHURCH CHUCKLES

The town pastor had died after a long, faithful and good life. He waited patiently for St. Peter at the Pearly Gates.

Just ahead of him was Jim.

Jim was being cross-questioned by St. Peter who asked him who he was and what he did for a living on Earth. "I'm Jim and I drove a taxi in New York."

"Ah, yes," said St Peter checking his clip board, "you are most welcome Jim, take this golden silk robe and enter."

St. Peter turned now to the pastor and asked him his occupation.

"I was the faithful pastor of St Mary's Church for 43 years," came the reply.

"Then take this cotton robe and enter the Kingdom of Heaven," said St. Peter.

"How come," asked the pastor politely, "Jim gets a golden silk robe and all I get is a cotton one?"

St. Peter consulted his list and replied, "Easy, we go by results. Jim got more people to pray in his taxi when he was driving around New York than you did in your church!"

The village Rector was passing a very well kept garden and stopped to admire the beautiful flowers....

"The Lord and you have done remarkable things to this garden," said the Rector to the owner.

"Well, thank you Rector", replied the owner, "but you should have seen it when it was only the Lord in charge!"

The Vicar at Harvest Festival had arranged all the vegetables in front of the Altar. He asked the children if they could name them. The replies were potatoes, cabbage, carrots, broccoli and swede. So he asked if they could use one word to cover them all. A little boy held his hand up and replied, "Gravy"

With all the sadness and trauma going on in the world at the moment, it is worth reflecting on the death of a very important person, which almost went unnoticed last week.

Larry La Prise, the man who wrote "The Hokey Cokey" died peacefully at age 93. The most traumatic part for the family was getting him into the coffin. They put his left leg in... and that's when the trouble started.

Three boys are in the playground bragging about their fathers. The first boy says, "My Dad scribbles a few words on a piece of paper, he calls it a poem, they give him £50." The second boy says, "That's nothing. My Dad scribbles a few words on a piece of paper, he calls it a song, they give him £100."

The third boy says, "I got you both beat. My Dad scribbles a few words on a piece of paper, he calls it a sermon and it takes eight people to collect all the money!"
